

The owners and others sometimes give out free passes for events or special occasions. The words, "Pass Restricted" after a movie's listing means that this movie is new and these passes should only be used after the first week's showing of the film. It does not affect the purchasing of tickets.